The Fur Free Alliance member organizations need to have full rights to your submission to promote and disseminate your poster as part of our international fur-free campaigns. Consequently, Design Against Fur Contest Rules state that: "Only photographs and images that are COPYRIGHT/ROYALTY-FREE may be used." This rule also applies to images available from photo/image stock companies.

Note: Poster entries that include copyright/royalty-due purchased photos/images will be excluded.

1) Please state the source of all photos/images used in your poster: _____

2) Your signature below confirms that any person(s) featured in your submission have given their consent to having their image used in a poster for international distribution.

3) Your signature below confirms that no copyright/royalty-free images have been used in your submission.
